

Historical houses

Duxbury Clipper, Thursday, November 11, 1982

7

The above picture, taken about 1914, is "Riverlea," the present Patch house on St. George St., on the Blue Fish River. It was owned from 1913 to 1934 by E. Clifford Potter. Pictured are (l-r) Hope Potter, Alice Potter, Fred Potter and Bobby Needham, who lived up the road on St. George St. The Clipper thanks Alice Potter Hoyt for sending this picture.